COVID STATEMENT

At the time of the publication of this premium list, there are no provincial or federal covid-19 rules in place. Due to the fact that covid-19 is still very prevalent in this province, avalon kennel club is playing it safe and due to the fact that schools and places of employment are back full swing the virus will flourish in the next few months. It is for this reason and the fact that this show is being held indoors we are asking that exhibitors and visitors wear their masks. We will also try to make adequate space for the exhibitors for their set up area. An alternate room will also be available for set up. There appears to be adequate electrical plugs in each area for exhibitor useage. We would also, in an effort to keep us safe from covid-19 encourage frequent hand washing. As things could change drastically and quickly, we will try to keep any updated covid rules or if the show/trials are affected by the spread of covid-19 and provincial or federal covid protocol should change by notifying the parties to these events. Avalon kennel club will also abide by these rules accordingly. Exhibitors, volunteers and visitors must know that they are entering the common's (during our rental time) at their own risk and that the common's nor the avalon kennel club will not assume any liability should any person or persons, the exhibitor or volunteer or visitor become ill. this also includes and communicable dog disease transfered from dog to dog such as kennel cough.

If you knowingly have covid – 19, please do not enter the premises. If your dog knowingly has any communicable dog disease such as kennel cough, please do not bring them in the premises. The Avalon Kennel Club will try to make the venue a safe place but can only do so with your cooperation.
