JUDGES PROFILE

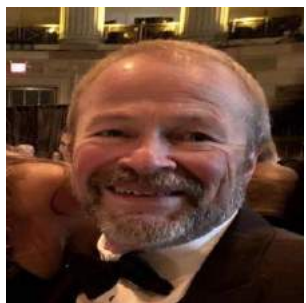

Michelle Scott, ON, Canada

Michelle has been involved with purebred dogs her whole life. She grew up with Irish Setters. She has bred and owned Akitas, Maltese, Lakeland Terriers, all three varieties of Poodles, and now Brussels Griffons and a Dandie Dinmont Terrier.

Michelle was a professional handler until 1998 when she retired and began her judging career. She is now approved as an all-breed judge and has judged in Canada, the US, Denmark, Colombia, Argentina, Australia, Mexico, the Philippines, China, and Japan.

Peter Scott, ON Canada

Peter started breeding Maltese in the 1970s. This eventually led to a career as a professional handler that spanned some 40 years.

He has, along with his wife Michelle, also bred Lakeland Terriers, Poodles, and most recently Dandie Dinmont Terriers.

Peter retired from handling several years ago and is now a CKC licensed judge for Groups 4, 6, and half of 5, and on permit for the other half of 5

Donna Conad, ON Canada

My mother, Betty Conod passed her incredible passion for dogs to me making me a second-generation dog person. Our first dog, a Great Dane was acquired in 1953. She earned her championship in 1954 and was our foundation bitch. (Ch Delta of Tollurst)

Whisper Hill Kennel registered with the CKC in 1962, and has produced multiple BIS, BISS, American and Canadian Champions along with a number one Great Dane and number five Working dog in the country.

My Goal was always to judge, and that came true for me in 2002.

As a handler, I have shown across Canada and the USA. Other breeds I have had an active involvement with include Pharaoh Hounds, Mini-smooth and Standard Smooth Dachshunds, Mini and Toy Poodles, American Cocker Spaniels, Wire Haired Fox Terriers and Shih Tzu's. My two heart breeds though are Great Danes (since a child) and The German Shepherd Dog, which I have had an active involvement in breeding and showing for the past 35 years. I had the pleasure of judging Bitches at the 2014 German Shepherd Dog Club of Canada's National Specialty, and judged Intersex and Dogs for the same club in 2019. I have judged multiple breed specialties, and all breed shows internationally. It was an honor to be invited to judge the Finnish Great Dane National, The Canadian Great Dane National and the USA Top 20.

It has been a pleasure to judge in other countries including Australia, Mexico, Finland, China, Japan, Philippines, Argentina, Columbia, Jamaica, USA, Bolivia and Canada. There is nothing more fulfilling than the world of dogs which has consumed most of my life.

Currently I am active in several dog clubs including the Great Dane Club of Canada, Great Dane Club of America, German Shepherd Dog Club of Canada, German Shepherd Dog Club of America, Vice-President of Forrest City Kennel Club, Canadian Dog Judges Association and the American Dog Judges Association. I am licensed by the Canadian Club to judge all Breeds.

I have judged specialty, and all breed shows in all the American countries (except Paraguay) as well as in Australia, New Zealand, Thailand, Japan, Indonesia, Malaysia, India, Ireland, Russia, China and South Africa. In 2015 I was honored by being appointed to judge the Wire variety at the DCA National in USA.

Guillermo Cavazos, Mexico

I began my career as a ring steward the age of 16 in my hometown of Saltillo, Coahuila, in northern Mexico. I enthusiastically collaborated with the local club for several years. During this time, I informally showed dogs for club members under the guidance of my first mentor, Alejandro Pena Ledezma, a Miniature Poodle breeder.

In 1990, I was admitted to the National Autonomous University of Mexico (UNAM) to pursue a degree in DVM. I took the Dog Breeds course with DVM José Luis Payor Dueñas and Canine and Feline Zootechnics with DVM Elizardo Valadez Franco, both recognized judges of the Mexican Kennel Club (FCM). I completed my DVM degree with a thesis on Dog Hair Care and Grooming, providing detailed descriptions of grooming, care and diseases for 56 different dog breeds.

In December 1993, during the FCM's international winter circuit, I won my first Best In Show (BIS) with a German Shorthair Pointer. In 1994, I moved to Arizona, USA, to work under the guidance of Clay Coady, a renowned handler specializing in terriers. He helped refine my knowledge and skills in grooming, handling, and expanded my understanding of numerous breeds. Upon returning to Mexico, I resumed my career, achieving BIS with various breeds, including Dog of the Year with an English Mastiff that earned 27 BIS in 1997. This same dog led to the FCM awarding me Handler of the Year. Besides Mexico, I competed in the USA, Guatemala, Costa Rica, Puerto Rico, Cuba, El Salvador, Spain, Portugal, Czech Republic and Finland, achieving championships in each of these countries, as well as multiple group winners and some BIS. Notable achievements include Best of Breed with the breed Mastiff at the World Dog Show in Helsinki, and BIS at the Americas and Caribbean Show with a German Shorthair Pointer in San José, Costa Rica. During this period, the FCM appointed me as an Authorized Litter Inspector, a role I performed for 5 years. I also served as part of the teaching staff for the Dog Grooming Diplomat offered by the FCM.

While at an exhibition in Costa Rica, I met Marlene Mastellari, a talented breeder from Panama who later became my wife. Upon moving to Mexico, we joined forces, continuing her breeding program for Shih Tzus, Welsh Corgi Pembroke's, and adding Beagles under the Darleen prefix, recognized by the Federation Cynologique Internationale (FCI). Over the years, we achieved championships in Argentina, Cuba, Colombia, Ecuador, Guatemala, Mexico, Panama, Peru, El Salvador, and the USA.

In 2002, we relocated to Guadalajara, Mexico, while simultaneously exhibiting dogs for clients. That same year, I established a veterinary clinic, which operated for two years. In 2004, we immigrated to Phoenix, Arizona, to expand professional horizons. Since then, we have served as dog handlers for all 7 AKC groups. Upon moving to the USA, I founded DogCommunity.net, a network dedicated to optimizing handling skills for dog owners through three classes per week in different locations of Phoenix.

I started judging all breeds in the FCM in 2014, initially at the national level eventually reaching international status. To date, I have judged in different countries in North, Central and South America, an activity that has brought personal growth and deepened my knowledge of multiple breeds. During these years, I attended numerous breed seminars conducted by the American Kennel Club (AKC) and the Dog Judges Association of America (DJAA).

In 2021, I founded the project called "Platicas Caninas", the first Spanish-language podcast dedicated to the purebred dog sport, along with a YouTube channel featuring over 180 educational videos covering all breeds and specialized shows. Notable events include the World Dog Show 2021 in Brno, Crufts 2022 and 2023, World Dog 2022 in Madrid, World Dog Show 2023 in Geneva, and the upcoming World Dog Show 2024 in Zagreb among many others. In 2022, I was accepted as a member of the World Dog Press Association (WDPA), based in Belgium, for my merits as an article writer in various print and digital media, including El Canófilo and Perros Pura Sangre (FCM official Gazete) in Mexico, Molosos de Arena, in Spain, and Show Beagles Worldwide, in the Czech Republic.

Kim Hamel, BC, Canada

I started in dogs in 1988 with a purebred English Springer Spaniel followed shortly after with a Cavalier King Charles Spaniel. This began a journey that has had many twists and turns. Along the way, my learning curve as a breeder and as an exhibitor was steep but enjoyable and very rewarding. I was fortunate to have placed in the Top Obedience totals as per DIC with my ESS and was in the top 5 for conformation with my Cavaliers for a couple of years running. I still own the only Cavalier to have won our Canadian National Speciality on two separate occasions. Recently I added a saucy Norwich Terrier to my household who finished very quickly and now competes in Rally and obedience. I have owned and shown a variety of breeds over the years which have included Springers, Cavaliers, Yorkshire terriers, Chihuahuas, Beagles, Dachshunds, Kerry Blue terriers, Keeshond, Sheltie, German Shepherds, and Norwich terriers.

I started judging in 2005 with approval for Group 1. I am the past president of the Cavalier King Charles Spaniel Club of Mid Western Canada, past president of Manitoba Sporting Dog Association, member of the English Springer Spaniel Club of Canada, CKCSCC, CKCSC of BC. Was secretary for the Red River Terrier Club in Manitoba and secretary/treasurer of CDJA Manitoba Chapter and current member of CDJA and now chair of VIDJSG. I also served one term as Manitoba Director on the Board of Directors for CKC.

I am now approved to judge groups 1, 5, 6 and 7.
