Our Judges

Lisbeth Booth :I have been involved with dogs in one form or other all of my life. Our family started with Doberman Pinschers and then as my father was an Air Force member we were posted overseas and had to leave our dog with another family member. On return from overseas we didn't get another dog until we lived in Ottawa. It was there that I had my first involvement with the following breeds, Shetland Sheepdogs, Border Collies and Irish Setters being the neighbourhood dog walker. My first dog was a brindle Great Dane whom I rescued but was unable to save from his behaviour issues. On returning to Edmonton, I became a dog less member of the Edmonton Kennel Club for many years and am now a life member. I fell in love with the Standard Poodle as a result of many hours stewarding for my club and others in our area. I purchased a dog and put the starting obedience titles on him only to lose him to leukaemia. Then I purchased another poodle with whom I finished his obedience titles, and obtained a Draft Dog Title. I then rescued/adopted an Airedale Terrier and started working on him, but was unable to put any titles on because of his health and lack of registration papers. In the mean while I obtained another poodle and had started the challenging process of obtaining my judging papers. He is still a work in progress not having all of his obedience or rally obedience titles, and then I can't seem to live without an adoptee/rescue and took on another poodle. He is the brightest dog I have owned, but a disaster conformationally and will gradually be brought along in obtaining his titles under a performance event number.

This is my first year judging, and I took the process on as I thought that I had something to offer our sport and that it was a new challenge. Each time I judge I discover new things in the rules and ring methods, and it is a delight to see how other handlers work, what their vocal and signals look like as I like to try new things.

Carol Allinson: Born and raised in Winnipeg,, Manitoba. Met my husband Dallas while he was on the RCMP Musical Ride. We have two married sons & 3 grandchildren. My husband and I live on an acreage just out of Red Deer, Alberta with 4 Aussies, 1 Border Collie and 1 Papillon.

I started training obedience around 1982 when I bought my first registered dog, a Corgi. After taking obedience lessons I was hooked on the sport. For the next few years I bred and trained corgis until the Australian Shepherd was recognized by CKC in January 1992. I was looking for a breed with a little more drive. I loved the enthusiasm of the Aussie. In December of 1991 I purchased my first Aussie, a beautiful black tri Australian Shepherd.. Since then I have shown mostly Aussies and am now a breeder under the name of Cruisin in honour of Cruise.

I have always loved the sport of obedience not only judging but training and competing.. After securing my Utility title, I started to work on my judging requirements. On May 14, 2003 I received my official letter advising me that I had completed all my requirements and was now an obedience judge.

Judging was something that always enjoyed and wanted to do. I love meeting new people, traveling and judging the various breeds.

I am currently the Obedience Director for the Red Deer & District Kennel Club, President of the Hot Diggity Dogs Agility Club, I instruct obedience & rally and compete in Conformation, Obedience, Rally & Agility.
