Judges' Biographies

BENJAMIN CHIN

Benjamin's journey into the world of dogs began in Malaysia, where his family welcomed an American Eskimo Dog (Toy) into their home, sparking his passion for purebred dogs. His fascination deepened upon encountering his first Pekingese.

In 1990 a high school friend's family bred and exhibited Golden Retrievers and Benjamin assisted them with their dogs. This experience laid the groundwork for his future endeavors when he moved to Canada.

In 2003, he exhibited Pekingese in a Canadian show and gained a championship on the Pekingese that same year, marking a significant milestone in his journey.

Co-breeding his first litter of Pekingese in 2009, leading to numerous successful litters and championships.

Active involvement in the dog show community, including roles as a ring steward, show committee and exhibitor, honed his skills and understanding of the dog shows. In 2020, Benjamin obtained his first CKC permit to judge half of the toy group.

He strives to make the experience a positive experience for both the dog and the exhibitor.

He continues to learn and grow in this area. Despite his fast-paced employment in high tech, dogs and dog shows remain his cherished escape, providing solace and rejuvenation amidst professional demands, while his dedication to dogs and dog show community remains steadfast.

CHRISTIAN GÓMEZ ORTIZ

I'm from Bogotá Colombia, started in the world of dogs, thanks to the intense hunting activity developed in my father's family, which led me to become passionate about life in the countryside and above all for sharing and observing hunting dogs beating all lands. In this way and as a gift from my father to his children, I have my first experiences with American Cocker Spaniel dogs, used for the purpose.

In my first years of University, I managed to get involved with the Lasallian Canine Club, of which I would later become the first President directly elected by its members, where I had the fortune of "learning by doing", the official exhibitions scheduled under the responsibility of the Club.

Later, I became interested in the professional handling of show dogs, starting with the German Shepherds. I decided to venture into the Rottweiler Breed in the early 90s, not only as a breeder but as a professional handler, exhibiting Dalmatian, OESD, Bullmastiff, Boxer, Bulldog, Dobermann, American Akita, Bouvier de Flanders, Bull Terrier as well. In 1999 I was awarded the Lasallian medal of merit, for my work and development in the canine environment.

I join as a member of the ACCC where I had the opportunity, as a member of the Technical Committee and Board of Directors, to assume direct responsibility in the management of the breeding of the Rottweiler breed for several years.

I obtained my license as a Specialized Judge for Rottweiler and Boxer Breeds in 1998, extending it to group II F.C.I. in 2003 and groups I, VII, VIII and IV in 2008 FCI all-rounder Judge in 2009.

I have carried out judging in Canada (Bathurst, London On., Camrose, Nanaimo, Edmonton), Japan (Narita), China (Hangzhou, CKU), Mexico (Rottweiler specialty Monterrey), Club 00, FCM (Expocan), Guatemala, El Salvador, Cuba, Dominican Republic, Puerto Rico, Ecuador, Peru (Peruvian Kennel Club, Lima Rottweiler Club, Arequipa Canine Club, Bolivia (Cochabamba, Santa Cruz), Brazil (All breeds and Specialized APRO and others), Argentina (Specialized Rottweiler and Boxer), Rosario Can Club, Cordoba Kennel Club, Venezuela, Chile, in addition to those specialized for group II breeds and all breeds, under the auspices of several clubs in my country.

I am a graduate of the De La Salle University of the Faculty of Agricultural Business Administration in Bogota, specialized in Dairy Farming and Agricultural Business Creation and Management.

I have been working for 28 years as Technical and Commercial Manager of an important pet food and products company with coverage throughout Colombia.

PATRICK MUDGE

Patrick Mudge purchased his first purebred dog (a Samoyed) in 1969, which sparked an obsession with all things related to the dog show world. As a teenager he spent as much time as possible at shows lurking around the handlers' setups waiting for an opportunity to take in that second-place dog for Reserve!

An early fascination with the Winterfold whippets of Martine Collings led to a lifetime of involvement with that wonderful breed. Since that time Patrick has owned several different breeds and has shown dogs (many owned by others) to group first in six of the 7 groups (all but herding) and to Best in Show.

His most recent involvement (since 1997) has been with miniature poodles, co-owning Canada's Puppy of the Year for 1997 (BIS Can.Am/Ch Minstrel der Letzte Tanz, "Swayze") #1 mini and #4 non-sporting dog for 1998 and #2 sire in the breed. Patrick has bred Group winning, BPIS and BISS winning mini poodles.

A music educator by profession, teaching piano and voice, he has recently retired, with his partner Walter, to a small (266 acre) farm outside of Fredericton, NB.

JO ANN PAVEY

I have owned, bred, trained, and shown Shetland Sheepdogs for over 50 years. Our dogs have been very successful in all rings on both sides of the border. I am a lifetime student of all purebred dogs and to that end, as of March 23, 2024, I will be an All-Breed judge.

I have judged Group Specialty Shows for Herding and Toys, as well as Specialty Shows for Collies, Belgian Shepherd Dogs, Cavalier King Charles Spaniels, Pembroke Welsh Corgis, Finnish Lapphunds (National), Gordon Setters and Australian Shepherds (ASCA).

I have been very fortunate to have judged many Sheltie Specialties all over the United States and Canada, including having judged both Canadian and American Shetland Sheepdog National Specialties, the first and only Canadian to have been so honoured.

I have judged in Canada, the U.S. and Japan.

VICKIE UMPLEBY

My passion for purebred dogs began in 1969 at ten years of age when I had a part time job working for a breeder of American Cocker Spaniels. It was there that I learned to groom and show them and from there that I got my very first cocker. I started breeding and showing cockers in 1980 under the kennel name Nonnies, adding English Cocker Spaniels to my kennel in 1997. I have bred or owned more than one hundred champions in these two breeds. My top winners include Best In Show, Best Puppy In Show, Group, and Best In Specialty show winners in both Canada and the USA as well as winners at Westminster and American Spaniel Club.

In 1992 my husband and I purchased our first bulldog puppy who I showed to her championship. Though we only bred a few bulldog litters over the years I have owned or co-owned many bulldog champions. Highlights included co owning a Best In Show and National specialty winner who was the number one bulldog in Canada in 2012. And in 2018 our homebred veteran dog won Best of Breed at the Bulldog Club of Canada National Specialty.

My judging career started in Canada in 2002 and I have been licensed to judge all breeds since 2017. I have judged across Canada, in many states in the USA, Denmark, Czech Republic, Mexico, Argentina, New Zealand and Australia.

My judging career started in Canada in 2002 and I have been licensed to judge all breeds since 2017. I have judged across Canada, in many states in the USA, Denmark, Czech Republic, Mexico, Argentina, New Zealand and Australia.

I have been a member of the Canadian Kennel Club since 1978 and am a founding member of the American Cocker Spaniel Club of Canada since its inception in 1984. I am also a member of the Bulldog Club of Canada and the Canadian Dog Judges Association.

In 2018 I retired from a 38-year career in the airline industry. In addition to spending time with my family, my dogs, and horses, I also enjoy running, cycling, gardening and travelling and of course attending dog shows, both as an exhibitor and as a judge.
