Our Specialty Judge

Name:	Peggy Gutiérrez Otero
Place of birth:	Caracas, Venezuela
Nationality:	Mexican.
Original breed:	Am Cocker Spaniel (black)

My activity in the dog fancy: I was born in a very dog-oriented family, that included my parents (Mexican and Venezuelan) and a twin sister. Although at first love for dogs was not focused in pure breeds and show dogs, soon the hobby became passion for all the family, sharing breeding, showing, and caring for all our house dogs, at the time Am. Cockers and Wire Fox Terriers. My sister and I were very competitive junior handlers during our young years. Later on, Dalmatians were added to our kennel and in 1962 we moved to Mexico, bringing with us 2 females, Am. Cocker and a Dalmatian, which became our breeding bitches in the new country. At the beginning of the 70s, we started breeding Basset Hounds, passion that lasted over 35 years till the death of my last dog in 2010. In 2006 I received as a gift my first Miniwire Dachshund and from then on, I have done limited breeding and showing.

I am an architect by profession, having focused my first working years in designing and construction. Later on and till my retirement in 2008, I worked at the Appraisal department of a Government owned bank. At the time, being happily retired, I devote my free time (all day, actually) to my family, my dogs, judging dog shows, reading and some hand crafts. I belong to the Federación Canófila Mexicana (Mexican Kennel Club) since I arrived in Mexico in 1962. I was president of the Mexican Basset Hound Club during the 80s. Currently, I belong to the Basset Hound Club of America and the Dachshund Club of America, having attended in the last years to their National shows in different USA cities. I was a ring steward for many years, and I have been international FCI all breed judge for 35 years.

I have judged specialty and all breed shows in all the American countries (except Paraguay) as well as in Australia, New Zealand, Thailand, Japan, Indonesia, Malaysia, India, Ireland, Russia, China and South Africa. In 2015 I was honored by being appointed to judge the Wire variety at the DCA National in USA.
