General Information:

- Running and Handling: Horseback handling will not be permitted in any stakes.
- Please be ready for your brace in case of early pickup of previous brace(s). The running of the trial will not be held up waiting for handlers at the line.
- .22 caliber or larger blank pistols will be fired over all dogs with bird work in senior and derby stakes. Blank pistols may be fired over puppies if both handlers agree
- No live ammunition will be allowed in any stake. Pistols must have solid barrels
- Total entries will be limited to the number of dogs that can be run in the available daylight hours.
- The senior and derby stakes will be 30 minutes in length; the puppy stake will be 20 minutes in length. The Club reserves the right to rearrange the running order of the junior stakes should conditions warrant.
- Collaring a dog away after game contact will be allowed.
- Bitches in season will not be permitted to run.

- Tracking Collars: CKC approved electronic tracking collars may be used. Participants must declare that they are using the tracking collars to the Field Trial Chairman and also to the judges. Garmin GPS collars are not approved for use in Canada and will not be permitted. Any questions regarding their use should be referred to the Field Trial Secretary.
- Bells: Due to the nature of a cover course, bells are permitted to be worn on the collar.

It shall be the duty and obligation of the trial-giving club to see that any judge, marshal, club official, volunteer, or any other participant at an event held under these rules is not subject to indignities of any kind.

Reminder: There will be no exercising or training of any dogs on the grounds before, during, or after the Trial without the permission of the Field Trial Chairman or the Field Trial Secretary. All participants must be familiar with the CKC Rules and also the rules & provisions of this Premium List. CKC Field Trial rulebooks are available from the CKC or online at the CKC website for CKC members.

Prizes: Standard CKC rosettes will be awarded to the placing dogs in all stakes. Suitable prize will be awarded to the first placing dog in each stake. Prize will be awarded to the overall dog of the day as decided by the judges. In association with the GSPCC and VC tests, a suitable prize will be offered to the highest qualifying Irish Setter of the weekend in the field tests offered by VC and GSPCC
