Marjorie Martorella

Will Judge all Sporting Breeds other than Pointers

Marjorie Martorella was born and raised in Brooklyn, New York. Her involvement in purebred dogs began in 1966 with the purchase of a pet Irish Setter. Obedience training and obedience trials brought her into contact with the show world. In 1968, Marjorie purchased her first Pointer and has not been without one since.

Marjorie graduated from Wagner College and received a Masters Degree from Long Island University. She is a retired New York City Intermediate School Teacher. She currently resides in Millstone Township, New Jersey.

In 1974, Marjorie had her first Pointer litter under the Marjetta prefix. Since then she has bred over 158 Pointer Champions, 9 Best in Show winners and a National Specialty winner. The most momentous win was Best in Show at the Westminster Kennel Club in 1986 with Ch. Marjetta National Acclaim, handled by Michael Zollo and owned by Mrs. Robson. He went on to become the Top Stud Dog in the History of the breed.

Marjorie was an AKC licensed handler and eventually applied for her judge's license in 1981. She is approved to judge the Sporting, Hound Group and Working Groups and 3 Non-Sporting breeds. She has judged National Specialties in Pointers, German Wirehaired Pointers, Brittany's, Nova Scotia Duck Tollers, Labrador Retrievers, Irish Setters, Vizslas and Mastiffs. Marjorie has judged the Sporting Group at the AKC Show as well as the Hound Group at Westminster KC. Judging has taken her to many foreign countries as well, including Canada, England, Ireland, Finland, Brazil, the Dominican Republic, Mexico, El Salvador, Spain, Italy, Colombia, Argentina, Brazil, Australia, China, Japan, South Korea, Sweden, Switzerland, Norway, New Zealand and South Africa.

While judging in Finland in 1992, she was attracted to a line of English Cockers and subsequently acquired a bitch from the Northworth kennel. She started breeding English Cockers and acquired several other English bred imports. Marjorie has either bred or owned 22 English Cockers Champions and several with Obedience and Agility titles.

Wendy Hamilton-Petkau

Will Judge Pointers

The year 1982 marked the beginning of the Auburnmist Golden, which Wendy is known for today; with her first litter from some top English & American lines. To date, Wendy has produced some Top winning Golden in Canada, and multiple Best in Specialty winners, as well as in the U.S.; Auburnmist Golden's have consistently won under many international Breeder/judges, at various Specialties and All Breed shows on both sides of the border, most recently Am.Can.Ch. Auburnmist Harmonie For Story, taking multiple Breed wins and Group 2 placings from the classes and finishing her Am championship at 20 months. She finished her Canadian Ch. in 2022 winning Best of Winners at the Golden regional and the following day taking a JAM at 17 months of age at the Canadian National.

Initially Wendy was only interested in the conformation side of the purebred dog world. After meeting her husband Keith, she changed direction slightly to maintain the intelligence and trainability, the Golden Retriever has become known for. With this change they have also produced many Performance dogs, High in Trial dogs, with 3 of those attaining the perfect 200 score! Keith and Wendy have been entertaining the crowds with their talented Golden performing with the Spruce Meadows Prairie Dog Agility Team, since 1988.

In 1995, Wendy and her husband Keith opened the Auburnmist Training Centre Inc., a Canine Education Centre for obedience and agility. In recent years we have retired from teaching performance sports/events. Although we still maintain a safe boarding environment for all dogs, and of course conformation handling for all purebreds. Wendy always enjoys encouraging new people to learn how to show their own dogs.

Over the years, Wendy has consistently been involved with breed clubs, serving as either an officer or a director. She is presently the President of the Alberta Kennel Club, which organizes Canada's Largest Outdoor Dog Show. With her ties as a leading member of the Spruce Meadows Prairie Dog Agility Group, in 2010, she was instrumental in promoting the Club to move to the #1 World renowned equine venue, Spruce Meadows! Our club is hosts for many breed/group specialties, the Alberta Kennel Club has become a destination show for many dog enthusiasts, from around the world.

Judith Brown

Will Judge All Sweepstakes

My passion for dogs began at a young age and I have been actively involved in the world of dog breeding and showing for many years. I moved to Canada in 1978 and after researching into different breeds I began showing and breeding Gordon Setters under the Sassenach prefix in 1981. I have consistently produced dogs that are known for their beauty, athleticism and intelligence. I am a lifetime member of CKC, past president of the Gordon Setter Club of Canada, member of the Gordon Setter Club of America, Pacific Northwest Gordon Setter Club and Tartan Gordon Setter Club.

Throughout my career, my Gordons have amassed countless titles in showmanship, hunting, rally and obedience. My dedication to the sport has earned a reputation as a breeder of Gordon Setters with sound minds in sound bodies. I have been fortunate enough to win both Canadian and US Gordon Setter National Specialties with my homebred boy Edward. My dogs have won numerous best of breed awards in both North America and Europe and have been recognized for their excellence and consistency.

In addition to my success in breeding and showing, I have a deep commitment to the welfare of sporting dogs. I work to promote responsible breeding practices and to ensure that all of my dogs are healthy and happy.
