Guidelines and Rules

ELIGIBILITY - The following shall be eligible to enter the competition:

- A. Any Bull Terrier which has completed the requirements for a CKC, AKC, or other Championship awarded by a CKC or AKC recognized foreign Kennel club, prior to entry closing date.
- B. Any Bull Terrier winning BOB, BOV, BOS, WS, WB, RWD, or RWB at a Specialty show where the Bull Terrier Club of America (BTCA) awarded Recognition of Merit (ROM) points to the Bull Terrier.
- C. Special Entry Request – Any Bull Terrier not otherwise qualified may request a "Special Entry". In addition to the regular entry form and fee, a non-refundable application fee of $50.00 CAD and a request for special entry must be submitted to the Show Chairman by the entry deadline.
- D. BTCC Canadian Shield Trophy winners are ineligible for subsequent Canadian Shield Trophy competitions.

JUDGES – Three judges will be selected by the BTCC Board

- A. As a systematic way of determining class placements, the Board will assign the reference number 1, 2, and 3 to the selected judges.
- B. An officiating judge shall not own, co-own, or exhibit any entry at that Canadian Shield Trophy Show. An exhibitor may not exhibit under a judge who bred the entry, owned the entry within the past twelve months, or who has handled the entry during the past twelve months. An exhibitor who co-owns a dog with a judge at the Canadian Shield Trophy Show may show any dog under that judge, with the exception of the dog co-owned by the exhibitor and the judge. Any other possible conflict of interest should be brought to the attention of the Show Chairman for referral to the Board. The BTCC Board will determine whether, in fact, a conflict exists and will then rule accordingly. Any Board ruling will be final.

JUDGING PROCEDURE – The Canadian Shield Trophy Show Competition is judged by a panel of three judges.

- A. CLASSES – There will be four: Coloured Dogs, White Dogs, Coloured Bitches, and White Bitches. After entries have been received, the Show Chairman will make assignments based on the class size and reference numbers assigned to the judges. Judges 1 and 2 will judge the two largest classes. Judges 1 and 3 will do the third class, and Judges 2 and 3 the fourth. If classes happen to be equal in number then Whites and/or Bitches will be assigned first. Judges 1 and 2 will award the major trophies. In each case the unassigned judge will serve as referee if needed.

- B. CLASS JUDGING – Each judge will examine each entry individually and then both judges will stand together while each entry is gaited. When this preliminary judging is completed, each judge will submit on his or her card the number(s) of the entries which they wish to re-examine in the final round of competition. In a class of 15 exhibits or less, the judges will select up to seven entries for the final competition. Judges will be aware that a great deal of significance is attached to the final round and only the very top entrants should be so rewarded. Separately, each judge will also put forth the number of any dog they feel should compete for the Movement Trophy. Each judge is required to write a critique for each entry he or she selected for the final round of competition. With all the class entrants in the ring, the steward will combine the numbers from the judges’ cards and read in ascending order the entry numbers which will return for final judging. The ring steward will also read the entry numbers of any dogs chosen to move forward in judging for the Movement Trophy. Results of each judge’s selections from the various rounds will be posted after the completion of all competition.
- C. MOVEMENT JUDGING – All dogs previously selected to compete for the Movement Trophy will enter the ring together and will be judged. A winner will be awarded.
- D. FINAL ROUND JUDGING – Best and Reserve of each class will be awarded first. Then the four winners will be judged together in the ring for the Canadian Shield Trophy. The judging order will be (1) The Canadian Shield Trophy winner, (2) Runner Up to the National Trophy winner, (3) Best of Opposite Sex, and (4) Best of Opposite Variety. (After the Canadian Shield Trophy winner is chosen, the Reserve Dog or Bitch to the winner in the classes will enter the ring to compete for Runner-Up (except in the case of a referee decision).
- E. CONFERRING – Judges are not to confer in the preliminary round. The judges are encouraged to confer in the final and trophy rounds, and during the movement competition. At no time during the judging of any class will either judge confer with the referee of that class.
- F. REFEREE – If the two assigned judges disagree between two entrants for a class or trophy placement, the referee will enter the ring, judge those two entrants, and render a decision which will break the tie. The entrant not chosen is automatically reserve for a class win or final placement.
