JUDGES BIOS

LYNNE DOWLING

My name is Lynne Dowling. I have been training and participating in hunting and working certificate competitions for over 15 years. My 'girls' are golden retrievers; Aimy 11yrs is a Master Hunter and Zuma 3yrs is presently competing at the Senior level. It is a great pleasure for me to participate in the 2015 Duck Toller National Specialty.

My best wishes to all. Lynne

JOHN HATFIELD

John Hatfield started the field trial game with his black labs in 1962 in Saskatchewan.

He was the first to judge a Working Certificate test for the Golden Retriever Club of BC when the test was introduced in here MANY, MANY years ago.

John also took part in the first Hunt Tests held in the west at Grindord BC by the Kamloops Gun Dog Club. Currently John is owned by his black Lab Eider who is an accomplished Grand Master Hunter as well as a National Master Hunter. Of course, Eider has his Working Certificate Excellent title as well. He also has a new pup, Raven, an Eider son who will be giving his dad a run for the duck in no time!

John is also an avid hunter and fisherman.

John has been a great supporter of the less common retriever breeds and takes great joy in watching tollers work and run tests

SOPHIA FANOUS DVM

26 years ago, I fell in love with Flat-Coated Retrievers when looking for a dog to work in obedience and to show. When Sierra (my first Flatcoat) was 4 months old, she dove into a bush, retrieved a live pigeon, and presented it to me completely unharmed. That started our exploration of field work as my dog had made it clear what was important to her. Since then, I have worked my Flatcoats successfully in conformation, obedience trials, hunt tests and working tests. I occasionally breed under the "Affinity" prefix. Thank you for the honour of being asked to judge the WCI/WCX for your Specialty. Good luck to all the handlers and dogs.

MICHAEL RIGBY

Our first dog was a Flat-Coated retriever and we have been lovingly trained and owned by this breed for the past 14 years. I first heard of Hunt tests or Working certificates the day my puppy came home and was not yet a hunter, but thought the retrieving games might be fun (spoiler alert...they are and addictive too!). Over the intervening years my wife and I trained each of our three dogs to the level of GMH and two became NMH together in 2011. Training for competitions gives me my greatest personal rewards. I am at my happiest being a companion and collaborator to awakening our dogs' own natural instincts and helping to shape them into finely honed marking and handling skills through training.

While I view myself a trainer first and hunter a distant second, I am of the mind that they deserve as many days in the field as I can provide. I now enjoy upland hunting immensely, as much for watching the fun the dogs have scenting up birds as for the shooting itself. I marvel at the power of a dog's nose not only in the manner that they use it, but also on the impact it has upon the whole of their being. Mostly, I just love watching happy dogs doing what they have been bred to do.

I have judged working dogs at all levels for over 9 years and was honoured to be one of the three judges in last year's Canadian National Master Hunt Test. However, in all my experience I can honestly say that whether competing or judging, National Breed Events are hands down the most fun of all. Here's wishing everyone and their dogs a memorable and rewarding 2015 National Specialty. I am honoured to be one of your judges.
